

2012

What is so special about 2012?

2012 is the 125th anniversary year of the founding of the Chester Diocesan Guild of Church Bell Ringers

One of 2 major events* to be held in the UK that year

To celebrate this momentous occasion the Guild has invited the

Central Council of Church Bell Ringers
to hold their 115th Annual Meeting in Chester

This will be held on the late May Bank Holiday Weekend

The Guild Committee have appointed 1 representative from each Branch to start the planning process and whilst we realise it is more than 3 years away it will require a great deal of forward planning

The Guild will need the commitment of all members to make this occasion a success and we aim to give the 200 plus CCCBR delegates a weekend to remember

Please book this weekend in your diary

Guild members will be welcome to join in the social activities we are planning and you will all be informed on a regular basis on our progress as the event draws near

The Guild will play host for Central Council members to-
Ring Peals Visit Chester Guild Towers
Join in our Sunday Service Ringing
Visit the many places of interest in our County
Attend an Evening Reception & Dinner on the Sunday
Hold the 115th AGM of the Council on the Monday

*And the other major event?

Something entitled the Olympic Games
being held in a place called London

Flyer 1 July 2008

2012

What is so special about 2012?

2012 is the 125th anniversary year of the founding of the Chester Diocesan Guild of Church Bell Ringers

One of 2 major events* to be held in the UK that year

To celebrate this momentous occasion the Guild has invited the

Central Council of Church Bell Ringers
to hold their 115th Annual Meeting in Chester

This will be held on the late May Bank Holiday Weekend

The Guild Committee have appointed 1 representative from each Branch to start the planning process and whilst we realise it is more than 3 years away it will require a great deal of forward planning

The Guild will need the commitment of all members to make this occasion a success and we aim to give the 200 plus CCCBR delegates a weekend to remember

Please book this weekend in your diary

Guild members will be welcome to join in the social activities we are planning and you will all be informed on a regular basis on our progress as the event draws near

The Guild will play host for Central Council members to-
Ring Peals Visit Chester Guild Towers
Join in our Sunday Service Ringing
Visit the many places of interest in our County
Attend an Evening Reception & Dinner on the Sunday
Hold the 115th AGM of the Council on the Monday

*And the other major event?

Something entitled the Olympic Games
being held in a place called London

Flyer 1 July 2008